It's For The

Goals of the Non-Profit Organization

Inmate Lives Matter

People's lives were taken advantage of in and out of prison.

The Inmate Lives Matter organization was created by Raymond Jenkins to help inmates in and out of prison that are disenfranchised. Starting with providing resources for the background that begins on probation and parole, which include having food and clothes, finding jobs, getting a regular education, and keeping up with the possible down averages of street politics that may result in jail and confinement contracts that are not suitable for history that can be passed on to the next generation.

But now it's better in the 21st century era for mothers and fathers that can get reports to the state capitol about a nonprofit organization that shall be suitable for help and that anyone's donation is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law.

Here is the opportunity for you to donate and help get this organization started and off the ground.

I'm asking for change. It's for the Community.

Thank you!

Greetings,

Hello! How are you? I hope
all is well.

My name is Mr. Jenkins and I am C.E.O of my non profit organization called,
"Inmate Lives Matter" Our goal is simply to supply inmates with resources while also providing 'in house' education. On top of that we provide small jobs (mostly stationary work) and self help groups lead by our organization leaders.

We aim to help inmates obtain healthy tools that will keep them out of prison.
"Inmate Lives Matter" supports inmates inside but one day we hope to have the resources to provide housing when they are released.

We are unfortunately only as big as our funding allows us to be. Will you donate to our worthy cause? We are looking for financial support, stamps, envelopes, paper, and softcover text books. We appreciate your time. If you choose to donate 'text books' then contact us and we will let you know in response what educational text books we will need. For all non-money donations please send directly to me at my prison address. For money donations you can make a deposit of your choice at our business account number below. Thank you and remember, "Inmate lives Matter."

Sincerely,
C.E.O x
